Release of Liability

The undersigned assumes any risk of injury which may be incurred as a result of viewing or contact with any or all animals at the Animal Care League shelter and adoption center and/or any and all animals in the custody of any and all Animal Care League representatives.

In the case of persons under sixteen years of age, the undersigned parent or guardian or other adult indicated below assumes any risk of injury which may be incurred to the person under the age of sixteen as a result of viewing or contact with any or all animals at the Animal Care League shelter and adoption center and/or any and all animals in the custody of any and all Animal Care League representatives.

The Animal Care League attempts to screen and restrain animals appropriately, but visitors should be aware that some animals, when introduced to new situations or persons, can behave unpredictably and may, on occasion, become aggressive out of fear or stress.

In consideration of my / my child's / other / my _____'s (circle one or more as applicable and supply description of relationship as appropriate) participation in the activities of the Animal Care League, the undersigned, on behalf of him/herself and on behalf of the parents or guardians of any persons who accompany him/her, hereby releases and forever discharges the Animal Care League, its members, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives from any and all liabilities, actions, causes of action, claims, damages, costs or losses incurred which may arise out of or relate to said participation in any of the activities of the Animal Care League or that may occur while on Animal Care League premises.
